Wanted for robbing a car dealership

Indianapolis, Indiana, December 28, 2009: Detective John Maloney of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department Robbery Unit has released a composite sketch of two men wanted for armed robbery. On August 31, 2009 at approximately 6:00 a.m. at the Champion Chrysler Dodge Dealership at 4505 W 96th Street in Indianapolis, Indiana two men entered the business through an unlocked employee entrance. One of the men who was holding a silver handgun ordered an employee to open a safe in his office, the employee could not open the safe because of a door malfunction so the man hit the employee in the head. The suspects took checks and an undisclosed amount of money from the safe and left the business.
