Wanted for Theft

Indianapolis, Indiana, July 20, 2010: Detective Adam Franklin of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department is looking for the identity of three men wanted for a series of thefts. Beginning in November 2009 and continuing until June 2010, the suspects used cloned ATM cards to withdraw large amounts of cash from local ATM machines. Most of the ATM's were inside AM/PM gas stations located in the metro area. Almost 200,000 dollars were stolen by the suspects.

The first suspect is described as a black male, thin build, dark complexion, large earrings in both ears.

The second suspect is described as a Hispanic or Indian male, medium build, with a long pony tail.

The third suspect is described as a Hispanic male, medium build, with a mustache.

Pictures of the suspects can be seen at www.crimetips.org.

If you have any information that will assist authorities, call Crime Stoppers at 262-TIPS (800-222-TIPS) or submit an online anonymous tip at CrimeTips.org. You will remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1000 if the information leads to a felony arrest. Only anonymous callers to Crime Stoppers are eligible for these cash rewards.
